Conviction

My Personal PODs • points of decision

1. Relate an experience when you saw or experienced decision making based on someone's conviction?
2. What were the responses of others? What were your responses?
3. How can you tell the difference between stubbornness and conviction?
4. How would you test your assumptions?
5. What are some of your non-variable convictions? How were they formed?
6. How did you see Doss acting on his convictions? How do you relate to that?
7. What are some of the convictions you hold as foundational to who you are?
8. How and when did you develop those convictions? Who helped you?
9. How can you help others as they develop the moral compass point of conviction in their life?
